

FOREWORD FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

Welcome to KPJ Healthcare University College (KPJUC)!. It is with great pride that we congratulate all new students who choose to pursue their studies at our University College.

KPJUC offers local and international students the opportunity to study in what we are best at, Medical and Healthcare Higher Education. To realise your academic excellence, we provide the best services and facilities relevant to the respective programs. We provide facilities for theory and practice, with clinical experience at our very own network of KPJ Healthcare Berhad Group of private hospitals nationwide.

We were the first private Nursing College to offer the Diploma in Nursing program recognized by the Minister of Health in Malaysia and have maintained our excellent track record with the Malaysian Nursing Board by ensuring all our students passed the Final Examination since the inception of the College way back in 1991.

After 25th years, we have become more committed to word maintaining our quality of graduates not only in nursing, but in other health sciences as well. Our latest venture included medical, as well as business management.

Being the premier healthcare private higher institution in Malaysia, KPJUC measures its success by the quality of its graduates, and by their ability to use their knowledge, skill and leadership qualities effectively and efficiently within the hospital setting as well as the community. Our graduates have demonstrated that the skills and qualifications they obtained throughout their learning process at KPJUC are of international standard as their are numbers working outside Malaysia, such as in Saudi Arabia, Australia and Singapore are growing.

It is our pledge to ensure that your time at University College.

Welcome onboard!

PROF. DATO' DR. LOKMAN SAIM

RESERVATION OF POWER

The KPJ Healthcare University College (KPJUC) Student Handbook is not intended to be a contract or part of a contractual agreement between KPJUC and the student. The KPJUC Student Handbook is available at Registrar Office and Student Affairs Department. Changes in the content of the student handbook may be made at anytime, by the university, division, or college administration. This student handbook supersedes all previous handbooks, documents, and directives where they may be in conflict. The student handbook is the governing document for all program-related information. Please become familiar with the policies and procedures listed within.

Failure to read this handbook does not excuse students from the rules, policies, and procedures contained in it. Students are expected to be familiar and comply with all the policies and procedures contained within the student handbook, including any revisions or modifications. KPJ Healthcare University College reserves the right to amend, modify, add to, or delete its rules, policies, and procedures without notice, affecting its institutional relationship with students as deemed necessary by the administration. Any such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion shall not be considered a violation of the relationship between the university and the student. Such right includes modification to academic requirements, curriculum, tuition, and/or fees when in the judgment of the administration such changes are required in the exercise of its educational responsibility.

REGISTRATION & ENROLLMENT

1.1 GENERAL GUIDELINES ON RULES & REGULATIONS

This handbook is aimed at all new students who are starting at the KPJ Healthcare University College –undergraduates and postgraduates.

The purpose of the University Student Handbook is to tell you about our commitment to you in providing an enabling learning environment, and our expectations of you, in return, as a member of the University community.

Along with the course information put together by your department, it provides you with the answers to many of the questions you might have about studying here. University procedures, regulations and services are mentioned in this handbook. For those of you living in halls of residence, you should also read the Hostel Handbook for rules and regulations specifically about your hall.

The University College is committed to a partnership with its students in which both sides acknowledge their responsibilities for achieving a fulfilling and successful academic experience.

1.2 ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION

Acceptances to KPJUC's Foundation, Diploma, Undergraduate and Postgraduate programmes are based on academic qualifications as well as English language proficiency.

English is the medium of instruction at KPJUC. All lectures, laboratory sessions, and written and oral examinations are conducted in English. This also applies to project and thesis reports and viva. In view of this, all applicants must provide documentary evidence of proficiency in English.

The aim of the selection process is to recruit those applicants who will be able to benefit fully from the programme of study, by achieving its objectives and by attaining the standard required for the award.

All applicants are required to submit a duly completed copy of the Application form together with the relevant documents required. Only successful applications will be issued a letter of offer, which the applicant would need to endorse with his/her signature, together with the payment.

If deemed necessary, applicants may also be required to attend an interview and/or take an entrance test conducted by the University. Applicants should note that normally there are more applications than places available at the University. The fulfilment of the minimum entrance requirements alone does not guarantee admission into the University.

1.2.1 Equal Opportunities

KPJUC seeks to implement and sustain equality of opportunity throughout all aspects of its work and to ensure that no person suffers unfair treatment as a result of race, colour, ethnic or natural origin, nationality, religion or belief and gender.

1.2.2 Implementation

Responsibility for the implementation of the Admissions Policy lies with Board of Directors of the University College and acting in collaboration with the Senate Committee.

1.3 ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The academic entry requirement of an academic programme is strictly governed by the Ministry of Higher Education (MOHE) and relevant Boards and authorities (e.g. Malaysian Medical Council, Nursing Board, Pharmacy Board, etc).

The entry requirements may differ from each program and applicants are advised to ensure they are qualified for the programme applied.

1.3.1 Letter of Offer

An Offer letter is issued to applicant who has successfully met ALL the qualifications set by the MOHE, University College and relevant boards or Authorities.

1.3.2 Conditional of Offer

The CONDITIONAL OFFER is based on;

1. Good health condition – no serious problems that can affect the studies
2. Non-handicapped and have an ideal body weight – acceptable body mass index (BMI)
3. No outstanding on previous PTPTN Loan (if any, please find other sources of finance. Those who pursue study at higher level, e.g.: from Diploma to degree, are eligible to apply, even though they still have outstanding loan)
4. Meet the entry requirement set by the Ministry of Higher Education and the Senate of University College.

The Management of KPJ Healthcare University College reserves the right to withdraw/revoke the offer if students do not meet the above conditions or provide false information or /and upon being verified non medically fit.

Under certain circumstances, a student who is under the Academic Probation and has failed a subject or more in the first semester may be allowed to continue his / her studies with the written approval from the Dean of the Faculty. The Registrar Office will then determine if a further probationary period is necessary and if so, the length of time.

1.3.3 Defer of Intake

Applicant may request for deferment of intake due to reasons which may be approved by the Registrar Office. However, applicant must fulfilled the minimum requirements set by the University College i.e. make full payment of registration fee.

Student may appeal for defer of intake minimum ONE semester only. No further extension shall be given and applicant is required to apply fresh.

In case of applicant failed to register in the following semester, the University College shall NOT reimburse the registration fee.

1.3.4 English Language Requirements

Applicant who undergoes academic program (i.e. collaboration with International partners) which needs to pass the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) or Testing of English as Foreign Language (TOEFL) or any other English tests are required to prove so during the application process.

1.4.2 Registration and Admission

The registration procedure for international students to apply for programs offered by KPJ Healthcare University College may be summed up in the following two steps:

- i. Submission of the Registration Form together with the Registration Fee and
- ii. International Student Services Fee.

These fees are non-refundable even if the student fails to obtain a student Visa from the respective Malaysian Government agencies.

The submission must be accompanied with the relevant certified true copies of previous certificates and transcripts obtained and used for entry into KPJ Healthcare University College.

Remittance of the other fees and initial tuition fees in full as stipulated in the Letter of Acceptance, which will be issued upon approval of the student visa.

International students who remit their money through telegraphic transfer without in a diploma or degree programme will be charged an administrative fee of 30% based on the amount remitted. This is to deter misappropriation of telegraphic transfer facilities for personal gains.

The offer to international students is valid for 1 months, from the date of the Letter of Acceptance. In the event that an international student is unable to come to Malaysia after validity period, he / she will be required to re-apply via the procedures mentioned.

All academic and administrative rules and regulations stated in this handbook are applicable to international students.

1.4.3 Rules and Regulation

Immigration rules and regulation while studying in Malaysia

1. After the issuance of the Letter of Offer, we will submit your application for student visa to the Education Malaysia Global Services (EMGS) in Malaysia on your behalf. This process will take approximately 1 – 2 months.

Note: Students who are already in Malaysia on social visa are required to leave the country before submission of visa approval to EMGS.

- i. Upon obtaining the Student Visa Approval Letter (VAL) from the Immigration Office, you are required to pay an advance tuition fee amounting to RM16,000 (USD5,335) being the “Prepaid Fee” before the Original Approval Letter is sent to you. We will scan to you a copy of the Approval Letter (if necessary).

Note: Student might have to top up any balance upon enrolment if the total fees payable is higher than the Prepaid Fee.

- ii. Kindly bring the approval letter together with your passport to the nearest Malaysian Embassy/Consulate as you are required to obtain a single entry permit before entering Malaysia (if applicable).

2. You are required to inform KPJUC of your arrival details at least 5 (five) working days prior to your arrival in Malaysia. Kindly take note that you must be picked up by KPJUC’s representative at the airport in order to obtain clearance from the Immigration checkpoint.
3. You must satisfy the programme requirements by attending 80% of all your scheduled classes and achieve satisfactory academic results. Failing to do so can result in your Student Pass being revoked.
4. Attendance in class is COMPULSORY at all times unless you are able to provide a Medical Certificate (MC) from a certified doctor. Consistent failure to do so will result in your Student Pass being revoked.

5. You are required to take responsibility of monitoring the EXPIRY DATES of your passport and Student Pass.
6. Where an extension of the Pass is required, students must submit their passports to the International Office at least 2 months before the expiry of the pass in order to facilitate the extension. Failing to do so would result in paying an extra RM100.00 to obtain a Special Pass.
7. All penalties imposed by the Malaysian Immigration Department in the event of late extension or expiry of Student Pass are to be borne by the student.
8. Two weeks before completion of your education in KPJUC, you are required to inform the International Office to cancel your Student Pass.

1.4.4 Withdrawal

The treatment for student visas or student passes are appended below under different circumstances and international students are expected to be informed on the cancellation of visas/permit under following circumstances and conditions; –

1.4.4.1 Voluntary Withdrawal

The student is required to complete the withdrawal form with the clearance from all relevant departments and school. Photocopies of the departing visa and the air ticket bearing the departing date and flight have to be submitted to the International Office.

1.4.4.2 Completion of The Programme

The student is required to complete the Programme Completion Form with the clearance from all relevant departments and School / Faculty. Photocopies of the departing visa and the air ticket bearing the departing date and flight have to be submitted to the International Office.

1.4.5 Termination of Studies

A student may be terminated from his / her studies at KPJ Healthcare University College on the grounds of poor performance and / or poor attendance or other reasons related to indiscipline or academic misconduct. The student's student visa will be cancelled and the student is expected to make immediate arrangements to return to his / her home country as soon as possible. Failure to do so may result in the student's status being regarded as illegal by the Immigration authorities.

1.4.6 Transfer of Institution

International students who wish to transfer to another institution will need to have their student visas cancelled as these visas were obtained through KPJ University College. The new institution is then expected to apply for the new visas on the students' behalf. The procedures and conditions of transferring to another institution are:-

1. approval from KPJ Healthcare University's College management

9. Department (or what ever the current applicable rate is)

KPJ Healthcare University College reserves the right to issue the Letter of Release to students.

1.5 ORIENTATION WEEK

A student's journey begins with New Student Orientation. This interactive event is designed for students to learn how to navigate college life and succeed at KPJ Healthcare University College (KPJUC).

New Student Orientation provides an opportunity to discover valuable resources, and an academic overview, take a campus tour, enjoy outdoors activities with senior students, and register for classes. In addition, New Student Orientation sponsors events throughout the academic year to connect new students to the University and the campus community.

New students are required to attend the Orientation Week in order to familiarize with the University College environment, rules and regulations and other essential administrative procedures prior to the commencement of their academic classes. Usually, the Orientation Week shall be held one week prior to the start of new semester. In general, students have found the Orientation Week to be useful and beneficial. It is also an opportunity to exchange information and develop new friendships before the start of a hectic semester.

1.6 FINANCIAL AID

1.6.1 Financial Support

Without prejudice to the rights of the KPJ Healthcare University College, the University College reserves the right to make without notice amendments, changes, modifications or alterations in matters related to fees and shall bear no liability in respect of the said amendments, changes, modifications, or alterations.

KPJ University College will assist students (local) in obtaining financial aid through a number of agencies. Students may apply for sponsorship from hospitals under KPJ Healthcare Berhad (KPJ), the National Government of Higher Education Student Loan Scheme (PTPTN), MARA Education Loan Scheme, Kuok Foundation and others. Loans and or other financial assistance from agencies such as Banks / Financial Institutions, EPF, SOCSO, State Scholarships and Private Scholarships are also available.

ACADEMIC

2.1 COMMENCEMENT OF CLASSES

Students (current and new) are required to attend the very first classes upon the opening of the new semester. This is to avoid missing important information that may affect their lessons for the whole semester.

2.1.1 Attendance of lecture

Every student must make himself or herself available throughout the working hours as specified by schools concerned. If the student fails to make himself or herself available he or she has to inform the coordinator of programs/lecturer in-charge accordingly.

(Student in Nursing programmes need to achieve 85% attendance of lecture hours as stated in “Standard Criteria for Approval/Accreditation of Nursing Programmes 2018” – Malaysia Nursing Board/Malaysian Midwives Board).

2.2 PROGRAMME STANDING

2.2.1 Deferment Of Studies

2.2.1.1 Type of Deferment

Deferment of Studies may be defined as the approved period of non-study requested by a student. The reasons for this request must be valid and acceptable before approval can be given.

2.2.1.2 International students who are residing in Malaysia on student visas. The approved deferment must be accompanied by a show of purchasing an air ticket by the student to leave the country during the specific period of deferment. Students are strongly not encouraged to defer their studies on tolerable grounds as it will prolong their length of studies.

2.2.1.3 The deferment of studies may allow for the following cases:-

- i. Illness (students who are permitted to defer on medical grounds must produce medical evidence that they are fit to return to study before being permitted to register).
- ii. Financial

iii. Family Matters

iv. Academic Performance

Deferment is allowed for only one academic session. The offer shall lapse if the candidate still does not register in the ensuing semester or academic session concerned.

2.2.1.4 Procedure for Deferment

A request for deferment of study shall submit to Admission & the Financial Aid Department to fill the form. Admission and Financial Aid Department will be presenting the requisition in academic Management Meeting/University Management Meeting for the approval of the Academic Board/Management of University.

2.2.1.5 Fees in Deferment Cases

Approved deferment in the next semester would usually exempt the student from incurring tuition fees since there is no attendance of classes. However, where, and if the deferment is for an existing semester that the student is currently in and the application is done immediately, complications may arise in the computation of fees because the student may have attended some classes. The fees will be ascertained by the Finance Department and the rules as defined in the financial policy.

2.2.1.6 Should a student defer his/her studies after the fourth week of the semester, the tuition fee are not refunded and the full payment of the tuition fee will be imposed.

2.2.2 Change Of Programme Offers

Changed Programme offers may be made at the discretion of the Admissions Committee. Both parties must agree to the change. The applicant's own choice should always be the first consideration.

2.2.3 Transfer Of Programme

2.2.3.1 The University College may permit a student to transfer from one programme to another within the KPJ Healthcare University College; such permission will be given only on the recommendation of the respective Coordinator for the student's current Programme and for the programme into which he or she wishes to transfer.

2.2.3.2 To initiate a change of programme, the said student must possess the following :

- i. Application must be applied before the registration of courses in Academic Department;
- ii. A full acceptance into an existing programme;
- iii. Meeting of the entry requirement of the new programme;
- iv. Get approval from the Dean of the accepting School along with the supporting documents;

2.2.4 Credit Transfer

(Please refer Section Examination in Clause 3.7, page 37)

2.2.5 Discontinuance Of Programmes

The cessation or discontinuation of studies by an existing student may arise on two main grounds voluntary withdrawal or termination. Each reason resulting in the cessation of the programme is viewed and treated differently, as outlined below.

2.2.5.1 Withdrawal

1. Students who wish to withdraw from the college before completion of their study must complete the Withdrawal form and submit it to the Admission & Financial Aid Department.
2. Tuition fee refunds are guided by the policies set by the Finance Department and students are advised to ascertain the procedure.
3. All debts and outstanding fees must be paid by student in order to get approval for his/her withdrawal.

4. International students who arrived in Malaysia for less than two semesters are not allowed to withdraw as tremendous effort had been exerted by the KPJ University College to complete the student visa application. Such withdrawals need the approval by the President.

2.2.5.2 Termination of Studies

If students have been found guilty of various serious offences may affect the peace of the country or image of the KPJ University College, their studies will immediate effect. Where and when the causal factors for termination appear to be too severe (as deemed by the Management), the termination letter may be issued without notice of warning letters. Such incidents usually relate to offences of criminal in nature or placing the institution's name at risk. (Please refer Section 7 for Code of Conduct)

2.2.5.3 Discontinuance of Academic and Administrative Services

Upon termination of studies, all academic and administrative services extended to the student previously will be curtailed and ceased with immediate effect. Students whose studies have been terminated are required to comply with the exit procedures immediately and refrain from entering the institution and its premises thereafter.

2.2.5.4 Appeal Due To Termination

1. Any student who obtains a termination status may appeal to continue in the same programme, or apply for readmission to the same or another programme of study offered by the college subject to approval of the University Management Meeting.
2. An appeal that has been denied by University Management Meeting with hence with be accepted as final. However, an appeal classified as 'worthy of consideration may be subject to further review by the University Management Meeting based on its discretion. It is within the jurisdiction of the Academic Management Meeting to decide on the verdict of appeal cases including isolated ones.

2.3 ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

2.3.1 Academic offences are acts which would have the effect of unfairly promoting or enhancing one's academic standing within the entire community of college. The following is a list of some, but not all, academic offences.

- i. Plagiarism. This consists of, but is not limited to, copying portions of the writing of others with only minor changes in wording, with (a) inadequate footnotes, quotes, or other reference forms of citation or (b) only providing a list of references. Paraphrasing without appropriate citation is also plagiarism.
- ii. Altering, changing or forging college academic records, including attendance records, regarding oneself or others. Entering the signature of any academic officer on any official college form, or causing any false information to be presented at an academic proceeding or intentionally destroying evidence important to an academic proceeding.
- iii. Falsification of data collected in the conduct of research or the presentation of falsified data in papers, manuscript, book or other documents submitted for publication or for the degree requirements.
- iv. The above is not an exhaustive list and other instances of academic offence may occur. Their identification will require the prudent judgment of the Academic Management Meeting. The above definitions and examples apply to all KPJ Healthcare University College students regardless of the programmes in which they are enrolled.
- v. Attendance/Absentism
The following guidelines have been established to minimize absenteeism. The allows for documented absences due to:
 - i. Personal illness (evidence with Medical Certificate)

3.2 GRADING SCHEME

The Student Performance Evaluation scheme will be based on marks obtained in the theory and practical assessment of every module. The marks will be in percentage, which will then be converted to grade and point hours according to the table below.

The grading scheme are as stated below:

Grading Scheme
Marks (%)	Grade	Point Hours	Academic Performance
80 - 100	A	4.00	High Distinction
75 - 79	A-	3.70	Distinction
70 - 74	B+	3.40	Credit
65 - 69	B	3.00
60 - 64	B-	2.70
55 - 59	C+	2.40	Pass
50 - 54	C	2.00
45 - 49	C-	1.70	Fail
40 - 44	D	1.40
0 - 39	E	0

Using the point hours obtained by the student and the credit hours of each module, the Grade Point Average (GPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) for each semester will be calculated.

The GPA of Semester 1 to final semester is then compared with academic performance rating, which is as stated above.

Conditional Pass will be awarded to the candidates who has obtained GPA above 2.00 but failed one or more modules. Resit examination will be carried out for the failed module.

Example of GPA calculated for Semester 1 module:

Modules	Credit Hours (a)	Grade	Point Hours (b)	Grade Point = (a) x (b)
DN 2001	4	A	4.00	16.00
DN 2101	3	C+	2.40	7.20
DN 2102	4	B	3.00	12.00
DN 2501	4	B+	3.40	13.60
DN 2901	3	C	2.00	6.00
Total Hours Semester 1	18	Total Grade Points for Semester 1 (c)		54.80
GPA Semester 1 = (c) / (a)				3.04
Academic Performance				Credit

The Point Hours will be multiplied by the number of credits for each module to give the Grade Point. The Total Grade Point is obtained by adding all the Grade Points. The GPA is obtained by dividing the Total Grade Points with the Total Credits for the Semester.

$$\text{GPA for Semester 1} = 54.80/18 = 3.04$$

For all the other semesters after Semester 1, the Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) will be calculated.

Example of CGPA calculated for Semester 2:

Modules	Credit Hours (a)	Grade	Point Hours (b)	Grade Point = (a) x (b)
DN 2002	4	A	4.00	16.00
DN 2003	3	C+	2.40	7.20
DN 2902	2	B	3.00	6.00
Total Hours Semester 2	9	Total Grade Points for Semester 2 (c)		29.20
GPA Semester 2 = (c) / (a)				3.24
Total Hours Sem 1 - Sem 2 (d)	18 + 9 = 27	Total Grade Points for Sem 1 - Sem 2 (e)		54.80 + 29.20 =84.00
CGPA Semester 2 = (e) / (d)				3.11
Academic Performance				Credit

The GPA will be calculated for Semester 2 similar to Semester 1. The Total Grade Points of Semester 1 and Semester 2 will be divided by the Total Credit Hours for Semester 1 and Semester 2 to obtain the CGPA grades.

$$\text{CGPA} = 84.00/27 = 3.11$$

3.11. A NOTE ON PLAGIARISM

3.11.1 Information

Plagiarism is an act of breaching the scholarly honesty and at KPJ Healthcare University College; plagiarism is seen as a serious crime which may lead to formal or legal action against those involved.

The Senate of the KPJ Healthcare University College with the agreement of the Examination Unit and the School Academic Committee issues the following general guidelines about the plagiarism to make the students aware of all types of plagiarism. These guidelines will also be helpful to the Examiners and Supervisors to carefully monitor the students and prevent any such issues. However, these guidelines may be modified by course specific guidance from the faculties and supervisors of various departments according to the need of the departments.

3.11.2. Definition

Plagiarism can be simply defined as an intentional or unintentional act of copying ideas, methods, phrases, results or any intellectual stuff which belongs to other persons, companies, or agencies without proper acknowledgement or quoting appropriate references. It also refers to taking credit of someone else's work and claiming to be owned by the candidate.

3.11.3 Types Of Plagiarism

1. Copying from presentations or published work word-for-word, or copying of a significant portion of text straight from a single source, without any alteration.
2. Copying from several sources and arranging in a flow to appear as self generated data.
3. Copying from previous own work which is either submitted to universities/other academic institutions etc or published or communicated for publication.
4. Any incomplete or wrong citation whereby the candidate mentions an author's name for a source, but neglects to include specific information on the location of material referenced; ignoring quotation marks (inverted commas) for the text used or provide inaccurate information which cannot be found in any source of information.

The above definition of plagiarism is applicable to all types of resources of information including information obtained from print and electronic sources, data bases, libraries, and published and unpublished material including lecture handouts, assignments, thesis, project reports and other students' work.

There is always a need to refer previous works while carrying out any research assignment; however there should be acceptable means of acknowledging the resources used to generate the data. The candidates are therefore instructed to include citations appropriately in their presentations/publications and should avoid reproducing the same phrases and copying results.

The citations included should be complete and there should not include any wrong citations.

The candidates are advised to consult their supervisors/HOD or any other senior faculty members for any clarifications

3.11.4 Penalties For Plagiarism And Fabricated/Fraudulent Coursework

The candidates who found guilty of plagiarism will be penalized in the following ways

3.11.4.1 The candidate will be instructed to modify the presentation by including appropriate citations, omitting the plagiarized text and resubmit the report within the same semester

Or

3.11.4.2. The candidate will be given a new title to complete, in this case the candidate will be punished with extension of duration of course of the study

Or

3.11.4.3 If there is a severe or repeated offence of plagiarism the candidate will be suspended or expelled from the University College. The action against the involved in plagiarism will be finalized by the Supervisor/VP/HOD/Dean of the school.

3.11.5 Candidate's Appeal Mechanism :

The candidates who are penalized for plagiarism will be given an opportunity to justify their case under following conditions:

3.11.5.1 If the plagiarism was unintentional and arise due to the need of the assignment

Or
